

OHIO LEGISLATURE!

Bitter Fight Over the Pending
Senatorial Election.

Senator Hanna's Friends Putting in Hard Work for Him.

Numerous Presidential Appointments Sent to the Senate.

SLIGHT FREEZE IN FLORIDA.

Columbus, O., Jan. 5.—The senatorial contest broke more bitter to-day than ever. After the sensational developments of last night in connection with the repeated changes of Representative Griffith and other doubtful members, skirmishing proceeded more clandestinely on both sides. No claims of changes were made on either side. It was the purpose of the managers in not holding any caucus to be able to keep their own secrets till the balloting begins, a week hence. It is believed that secret compacts are being made that will not become known until the votes of members are recorded. The situation is the same as after the organization of the legislature on Monday. All those who changed preferences yesterday were backed during the night to their original places.

There was much comment to-day on the departure of Congressman Grosvenor for Washington, after ex-Secretary Ryan and others, who have recently been in the interest of Senator Hanna. The Hanna men insisted that there would be no league with the opposition insisted that they had Hanna beat now and would defeat Secretary Ryan, Assistant Secretary Day, or any other friend that the national administration brought out in place of Hanna.

The feature of the day was the passage in the house by unanimous vote of a bill repealing the law for fifty years' franchises to street railways. This repealing bill was introduced by Representative Bradley, of Cleveland, one of the republicans opposing Hanna. Mr. Boxwell charged Bradley with using this bill for defense and bamboozle. It was freely charged by members that Senator Hanna was at the state house two years ago, as well as Senator Foraker, lobbying for a fifty-year street railway franchise law.

In the senate there were no new developments, Burke continuing to co-operate with the democrats.

It is announced that Senator Burke, the only dissenting republican senator, is dissatisfied with the senate organization and will vote for re-organization. Both houses adjourned till Monday.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Gov. Black Makes Many Recommendations
in His Annual Message.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 6.—In his message to the legislature to-day, Governor Black recommends that a commission be created to examine into the commerce of New York, the cause of its decline, means for its revival, and report conclusions in dealing with the labor problem, the governor made these suggestions: "First—that immigration be checked; second—that a fair rate of wages be paid to laborers; third—that in opposing strikes by armed men a method should be adopted which would not at first discharge a firearm and produce fatal tragedies such as caused a recent event to be universally deplored."

The legislature organized to-day. The senate with a membership of fifty has a republican majority of twenty; the assembly with 150 members on the roll, is republican by eight. The republican caucus nominees were elected without any unusual incident.

The speaker of the assembly is J. M. E. O'Grady, who presided during the session of 1897.

Chicago Gold Factory.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—The report that Chicago's gold factory is closed down is emphatically denied by Manager Brice. According to his statement, the factory is now sending to New York 2,000 pounds of bullion every day. A five year contract has been made with a New York firm to smelt the metal, as it was found impracticable to do so at the works at Thirty-ninth street.

All the features of the bill had been disposed of except the appropriation for the civil service commission, upon which, by previous arrangement, there was to be no general debate.
